ST REGIS
BORA BORA

Aparima Bar
Our Legacy is our Future,

In 1934, Fernand Petiot became a bartender at The St. Regis Hotel in New York, bringing with him the “ Bloody Mary,” a vodka and tomato juice drink he had started making in Paris. It was in The St. Regis’ King Cole Bar that Petiot perfected his original formula, adding salt, pepper, lemon, Tabasco and Worcestershire Sauce to create the drink that is so beloved today. It was rechristened the “Red Snapper” to appeal to the hotel’s elite clientele, and while the name might not have caught on, the spicy drink most certainly did.

Over the years, it has become the signature cocktail of the King Cole Bar. Honoring our storied past and the creation of the Bloody Mary cocktail, each St. Regis has crafted its own unique local interpretation of the original classic. Collectively, we refer to them as The World Collection of St. Regis Signature Bloody Mary blends, which incorporate regional influences with the original elements of the recipe created by Mr. Petiot.

CIGARS

Bolivar
Introduced in 1901, the powerful flavor of the Bolivar range is almost as widely known as its namesake, Simon Bolivar (1783-1830), the celebrated Venezuelan warrior who liberated all or part of what is today Venezuela, Columbia, Peru and Bolivia.

Cohiba
Considered: “Pride of the Havana”, Cohiba was created in 1968 for personal use of Cuban President Fidel Castro, and for diplomatic gifts. In 1982 the brand went worldwide with a strict control of the blend. Only women can roll Cohiba, and only the finest leaves chosen from the best Vegas farms in the Vuelta Abajo region are used.

Montecristo
The most famous of the many famous Havana brands started only in 1935 as a new brand from Menendez, Garcia y Cia. The name is reported to have been inspired by Alexandre Dumas’ 1844 novel Le Comte de Montecristo. With a strong marketing effort, this brand became the most popular of all Havana exports. There are no machine-made shapes in this range and the strength is medium; in fact, it has become the standard by which all other Havanas are now judged.

Por Larranaga
“There’s peace in a Larranaga, there’s calm in Henry Clay” reads the first half of the fifth couplet in The Betrothed, an 1890 poem by the celebrated English writer Rudyard Kipling (1865-1936). From this high point, the brand has shrunk to just one handmade model and a few machine-assisted styles. It was created in 1834 by Ignacio Larranaga, likely making it the oldest continuously-produced Havana brand still in existence.
